What is this product?

Type

The Product is an ordinary share in a closed-ended investment trust, a company whose shares are listed on the London Stock Exchange.

Term

There is no fixed maturity date. There is no right of redemption attached to the shares and if the Company is wound up, following a default or otherwise, shareholders will be paid any surplus assets after meeting the Company's liabilities in proportion to their shareholdings. An investor can hold their investment for any time period but 5+ years is recommended. There is no ability for Baillie Gifford & Co Limited to terminate holdings unilaterally or for the shares to be terminated automatically. Shareholders vote every five years on the extending the life of the Company. If that vote was not approved, wind up proceedings would commence.

Objectives

The Pacific Horizon Investment Trust plc ('the Company') is actively managed and invests in a diversified portfolio of equities that are normally listed on an exchange with the return of the product depending on the performance of the underlying assets. The Company aims for capital growth from investment in the Asia Pacific region (excluding Japan) and the Indian Sub-continent. If any income is distributed it will be paid into your account. The Manager looks to identify companies believed to offer the potential for long-term capital appreciation, irrespective of whether they comprise part of any index, typically over a 5 year horizon. The Company is actively managed and no index is used for the purposes of determining or constraining the composition of the Company but for comparative purposes the Company is measured against the MSCI All Country Asia ex Japan Index ('Index') in sterling terms. Derivatives may be used to obtain, increase or reduce exposure to assets, for the purposes of efficient portfolio management, and may result in the Company being leveraged. The Company can borrow money to invest with the intention of increasing returns (sometimes known as gearing) but in a falling market losses may be magnified. The shares are not traded directly with the Company but are instead traded on the London Stock Exchange (directly or via an intermediary). The shares can be traded on the exchange during trading hours. The price you pay or receive, like other listed shares, is determined by supply and demand and may be at a discount or premium to the underlying net asset value of the Company. Typically, at any given time on any given day, the price you pay for a share will be higher than the price at which you could sell it. The Company's assets are held through the Company's Depositary, which is The Bank of New York Mellon (International) Limited. To obtain further and other practical information, including financial statements, and regulatory documentation please see the Other Relevant Information section of this document.

Intended retail investor

The Company is suitable for all investors seeking a fund that aims to deliver capital growth over a long-term investment horizon. The investor should be prepared to bear losses. The Company is aimed at mass market distribution. The Company may not be suitable for investors who are concerned about short-term volatility and performance, who are seeking a regular source of income or who may be investing for less than 5 years. The Company does not offer capital protection.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for a minimum of 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class.

You may not be able to sell your product easily and you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

This classification only reflects historic share price volatility of the Company's shares. It excludes other risks inherent in the product and, therefore, does not show the full risk to the investor so even the lowest risk class can lose your money particularly during adverse market conditions.

Be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Gearing, exposure to emerging markets, foreign currencies, derivatives, private companies and the ability of the Company to buy back its own shares may increase risk.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

Performance Scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

Costs over Time

The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 5 years

The recommended holding period of 5 years has been selected as equity investments should be seen as long-term investments. However there is no minimum (or maximum) holding period for the shares. The shares can be sold when the markets on which they trade are open, in this instance the London Stock Exchange. At any time the value of your investment is based on the market value of the shares (the share price) multiplied by the number of shares you own. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. There are no exit fees charged but the person selling you the product may do so.
