FUND STRATEGY

The Fund's manager may invest across the bond markets into a broad spectrum of securities ranging from: government bonds that are deemed as low risk and of high quality, to bonds securitised against assets, as well as higher risk corporate bonds.

For direct security purchases, only those classified as investment grade are permitted. For un-rated securities and those that are classed non-investment grade, exposures can only be via investment vehicles including: Mutual Funds, Exchange Traded Funds and Investment Trusts.

The Fund will typically invest into bonds maturing between 3 and 7 years, with the manager having flexibility to invest across the whole yield curve and accessing exposure from cash out to 30 years and beyond as opportunities are identified.
